

I. The Desire For Justice And Anger At Injustice Are _____ Attitudes.

II. The Characteristics Of Divine Justice.

1. Divine Justice Is Often _____.

2. Divine Justice Is _____.

3. Divine Justice Is God's _____ (_____).

4. Divine Justice Is Often _____.

5. Divine Justice Is _____.

Share any examples of injustice that had troubled her angered you in the past.

1. In your opinion, how are the desire for justice and the virtues of Christian love and mercy compatible?
2. When does the desire for justice, and anger at injustice, become sinful or wrong?
3. Read Psalm 73 in a New International Version. Have you ever felt like the psalmist? How did you deal with it?
4. How should the absolute certainty of Divine justice impact your life and attitude?
5. In your opinion, why does God forbid us from getting revenge even when we have been genuinely and severely wronged?
6. Why do even Christians struggle with leaving justice totally in God's hands?
7. Read Psalm 7:11. In what ways is God expressing His just wrath today?
8. In your opinion, what are some reasons that God delays most judgment until the Day of Judgment?
9. Why is it important for people to remember that God is totally impartial in administering justice?