

October 2, 2011

5 Decisions That Devastate Lives.

Devastating Decision #1: _____ Spiritual Activities.

Devastating Decision #2: _____ With Temptation Instead Of
_____ From It.

Devastating Decision #3: _____ The Likely _____ Of Our Choices.

Devastating Decision #4: Seeking To _____ Up Our Sin Instead Of _____ It.

Devastating Decision #5: _____ Divine Conviction.

1. What spiritual discipline (prayer, work, church, etc.) do you struggle to consistently practice?
2. In your opinion, how do these spiritual activities help us to be victorious in our spiritual battles?
3. Can you share an example of someone flirting with temptation instead of fleeing from it?
4. Share some examples of what fleeing from temptation looks like in practice.
5. What are some likely negative consequences of giving in to temptation that people tend to ignore or forget?
6. In your opinion, why do people give in to temptation even though the negative and painful outcome is obvious?
7. If comfortable, please share a time when you tried to conceal your wrongdoing instead of just coming clean and facing the consequences?
8. Does coming clean about our sins mean telling everyone the details of the wrongs that we have committed?
9. What are some various ways that God convicts us about the wickedness of our sins?
10. Conviction is painful because it brings us to a deep awareness of the guilt and shame of our sins. How is this pain a good thing?