

Unfolding Drama Of Redemption: Part 49. "Book Of Nehemiah Rebuilding The Walls."

Passage: Nehemiah 1-13.

January 15, 2012

1. The People Of The Church Should Be _____ And _____.

2. The Teaching To The Church Should Be _____, _____, _____, And _____.

3. The Worship In The Church, Through Music And Song, Should Be Treated As An _____.

1. In your opinion, what are some things that might keep Christians from having deep compassion for others?

2. What does compassion look like in daily practice? In other words, what will we do, not just feel, when we are truly compassionate for others' pains and problems?

3. In your opinion, what are some things that hinder Christians from cooperating by using their gifts and opportunities to accomplish God's purposes?

4. What makes a teaching truly biblical? Share any examples of non-biblical teachings that you have heard being taught to Christians.

5. What are some ways that Christian teachers can make their messages more clear or applicable?

6. How can pastors make a message hopeful and encouraging when dealing with hard issues like judgment, hell, lukewarm Christianity, etc.?

7. In your experience, do most Christians and churches give the importance and priority to worship (singing, music, etc.) that the Bible does?

8. In your opinion, what are some things that we can do individually and corporately to promote and practice sincere worship as a top priority?